DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION : FOR APPROVAL OF CERTIFICATE OF
: AUTHORITY TO AMEND ITS ARTICLES

TO ASK OF THE LIMITED PARTICIPANTS

1. Why didn't Paula Tishok, a member of the ad hoc committee who recommended Charter and Bylaw revisions to the Board, object to the non-coeducational changes at the Committee level, rather than waiting to now to oppose them?

2. If a new not for profit institution of higher education, that otherwise met all requirements of the Department, applied to the PA Department of Education for a Certificate of Authority to approve its Articles of Incorporation, could the Department deny approval based solely on the grounds that the institution intended to be co-educational rather than single-sex.

a. If your answer is yes, please supply the factual and/or legal basis for your answer.

3. If an existing single sex institution of higher education, that otherwise met all requirements of the Department, applied to the PA Department of Education for a Certificate of Authority to amend its Articles of Incorporation, could the Department deny approval of the amendments based solely on the grounds that the institution was changing from a single-sex educational institution to a co-educational one?

a. If your answer is yes, please supply the factual and/or legal basis for your answer.

4. If an existing co-educational institution of higher education, that otherwise met all requirements of the Department, applied to the PA Department of Education for a Certificate of Authority to amend its Articles of Incorporation, could the Department deny approval of the amendments based solely on the grounds that the institution was changing from a co-educational institution to a single sex one?

a. If your answer is yes, please supply the factual and/or legal basis for your answer.

Respectfully submitted,
